WENDEL CELEBRATES GROWTH OF ALBANY OFFICE

BUFFALO, NEW YORK — November 15, 2021 — Wendel, a nationally recognized architecture, engineering, energy efficiency and construction management firm is celebrating the move of its Albany office. As Wendel continues to evolve and expand, the need for larger, prominent office locations emerged. This new space will allow for future growth and additional employees.

Wendel relocated its existing Albany office to 427 New Karner Road, Albany, NY 12203. Operations began in the new office space September 2021. Wendel’s service offering in Albany includes energy efficiency and engineering services. Wendel currently serves several markets including, state and local governments, as well as the K-12 and higher education markets.

“We are excited about our new location in Albany. We are closer to our clients, allowing us to better serve their needs. Our newest office supports our continued growth and expansion in New York and beyond,” said Stewart Haney, President and CEO of Wendel.
